

YOU'RE FUNDED BUT ARE YOU READY TO BE FAIR?
WEDNESDAY, 25TH OCTOBER, CREATIVE ZONE, UCC LIBRARY

MORNING SESSION – REGISTRATION REQUIRED

09:30 Registration and light refreshments

10:00 Prof Ivan Perry, Interim Director, Clinical Research Facility, University College Cork
Welcome address

10:10 Dr Aoife Coffey, National Open Research Forum Project Lead and UCC Library
Sonraí - Irish data stewardship networking event

12:00 Prof Kalpana Shalkar, School of Information and Communication Studies, University College Dublin
As open as possible, as closed as necessary? Navigating open science and intellectual property rights in the digital health ecosystem

12:30 Panel discussion

13:00 Lunch

AFTERNOON SESSION - OPEN

14:00 Prof Helen Whelton, Head of College of Medicine and Health, University College Cork and Chief Academic Officer, South/Southwest Hospital Group
Emergence of an Academic Health Sciences System research infrastructure

14:15 Dr Maria Quinlan, General Manager, National Research & Development, Health Service Executive
Implementing the HSE Action Plan for Health Research - implications for FAIR and open data in Irish health research

14:45 Dr Sharon Kappala, Data and Policy Programme Officer, Research Strategy and Funding Directorate, Health Research Board
Recent developments in the health data space

15:15 Jenny Clarkin, Grants Compliance Manager, Science Foundation Ireland
Research Data Management - an update on SFI's requirements

15:45 Break

16:00 Carole Morris, Head of Data and Modelling Services, Public Health Scotland
Controlled Access to Data for Health Research

16:30 Terry McLaughlin, Principal Information Analyst, Public Health Scotland
Reproducible Automated Reporting using R as an Enabler in Public Health Scotland

17:00 Symposium Close